PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Today's match against Olympic Sharks is one of the leagues most traditional and most anticipated matches of the season. I would like welcome Gary Phillips and his squad for this evening's Round 7 encounter at Bob Jane Stadium.

Our major sponsor Laiki Bank is currently holding it's annual charity fundraising event, Radiomathon, where all collections provide aid for various worthy causes in Australia and throughout the world.

Around the ground today you will notice young children rattling tins and selling raffle tickets. You can make a difference by generously donating monies or buying raffle tickets to help us help the children with special needs.

It has been a positive fortnight for South Melbourne. The glorious home win against Perth and a point in last weekends tiring trip to Orange has got us on the front foot. Olympic Sharks, the current NSL champions, are a strong side but we look forward to the challenge against the league leaders.

I would like to conclude by thanking all supporters who renewed their membership or became new members in season 2002/2003. Your role in assisting your club is very much appreciated. If you haven't yet purchased your seasons membership you should do so today. Memberships are on sale today.

COACHES REPORT

The great rivalry continues here today at Bob Jane Stadium. It's on again, Sydney versus Melbourne. Olympic Sharks are the current N.S.L champions and have started this year's campaign where they left off last season. Gary Phillips has managed to retain most of last year's team and with the addition of Joel Porter, acquired from Melbourne Knights during the off season, the Sharks are still the team to beat.

Our task this week is very clear. That is to give the Sharks their first defeat of the season. Following our strong performances in the last two games it is important that we continue to build on that base and drive forward with that momentum. Our defence has played a big part in this turnaround with two consecutive clean sheets. This has been done without compromising our natural attacking play. Numerous chances were created against Wollongong with three shots cleared off the line and another crashing off the crossbar.

The rotation of players due to injuries in the last few weeks has certainly tested our depth at the club. To their credit, the players who have come in have done a great job. It has also demonstrated this group of player's resilience, a virtue vital in any successful team.

With our young stars on the verge of a National team call up in December we will need each and every one of our players ready and willing to step in play their part.

The spirit amongst the boys is fantastic and the passion and commitment shown against Perth recently will be needed today more than ever as we take on the high rollers from Sydney. I hope you enjoy the game.

Buljan confident of lifting scoring tally

Peter Buljan, made his National Soccer League debut with Canberra Cosmos, and joined South Melbourne following short spells at Brisbane Strikers and Perth Glory where he amassed a career total 92 appearances and scored an impressive 26 goals.

Last season the 24-year-old striker scored just two goals, but has already equaled last season's tally having scored twice in his past three matches.

Buljan, a quiet character that enjoys relaxing, is pleased with his start to the season and is hopeful that his goal tally will continue to accumulate.

"The equaliser in North Sydney gave the team an extra boost where at the time we had the momentum to go on and win that match. The result didn't favour us, but I was pleased to get my first goal of the season".

"Scoring at home against my old side Perth Glory was fantastic. It was a great feeling to have scored such an important goal, one that helped us to our first victory," says Buljan.

South Melbourne is renowned for their attacking style of play and scoring many goals throughout the season. Peter Buljan will be working hard to continue this at the club, which has produced formidable strikers such as Jimmy Armstrong, Jim Pyrgolios, Charlie Egan, Doug Brown and in recent times Kimon Taliadoros and Paul Trimboli.

Our squad has the ability to score goals from all over the park, which will not only assists the forwards but formulates a positive and attacking squad," says Buljan.

THE FOUR DIEGOS

FOUR BIG FAT DIEGOS Ole!

It's great to see the movie 'My Big Fat Greek Wedding' doing a roaring trade at the box office presently.

It's a concept that we can all relate to, in particular those still looking to have their bouzouki heartstrings 'twanged' by a prospective soul mate on Wednesday Goya night at Billboard – the Greek / Australian 'looking for love' capital of the world.

Whilst the Diegos and your mothers hope you all find love in all the 'right places', rumour has it the ruthless South Melbourne marketing machine has sniffed an opportunity to make a buck.

How you might ask?

Breaching copyright and producing its very own 'rip off' sequel to this hilarious flick that's how!

Brilliant say the Diegos.

EXCLUSIVE TO SOUTH FANS ONLY, THE DIEGOS PRESENT THE TOP 10 SCREENPLAYS OF SOUTH MELBOURNE'S VERY OWN SEQUEL TO 'MY BIG FAT GREEK WEDDING':

1. MY BIG FAT STOMACH- The story of former Hungarian legend, Ferenc Puskas' time in charge as coach of South Melbourne
2. MY BIG FAT CENTRE-FORWARD- The story of John Margaritis' time coaching the dynamic but rotund South Melbourne star, Doug Brown
3. MY BIG FAT BLACK BOOK- The story of former South Melbourne playboy striker Ulyssus Kokkinos
4. MY BIG FAT DOSE OF LUCK- The ultimate chick's flick - The Steve Panopoulos Copacabana Love Story
5. MY BIG FAT MULLET- The story of the 1984 South Melbourne Grand Final winning team
6. MY BIG FAT HEADACHE - The story of any South Melbourne player who has had to endure a Frank Arok half time pep talk
7. MY BIG FAT GREEK DIVORCE- The tragic love story of John Markovski and the South Melbourne fans
8. MY BIG FAT RETSINA HANGOVER- The story of former coach, Ange Postecoglou and the celebration of his back-to-back championship triumphs in 1998 and 1999
9. MY BIG FAT FIFA PAYCHECK- The story of when Sepp Blatter gave South Melbourne president, George Vasilopoulos a cheque for a cool $3.8 million for qualifying for the World Club Championship in 2000
10. THE BIG FAT SMILE ON MY BIG FAT BANK MANAGER'S BIG FAT FACE- The story of when George handed the cheque to his bank manager

NEW FINALS FORMAT

Know your Finals System

The National Soccer League's latest shot in the ongoing war to win the hearts-and-minds of the Australian sporting public is a new look Finals Series based on that used in Switzerland's First Division.

So, how does it work then?

Well it's much like the old Top Six, but instead of a sudden-death finals series, the elite six sides will play a ten-match league against each other – with the top two advancing to a Grand Final in May.

Bonus points will attempt to separate the two dominant teams of the regular season from the remaining four clubs. The Minor Premiers will start the Finals League with six points, the second placed team with four and the rest with nothing. The 'winners' of this competition will host the Grand Final.

Just how will the new format fare? Will it finally ignite Australia's passion for National League Soccer?

It should be interesting; the majority of clubs favour the idea, but will the experience last? The National Soccer League has attempted the First-Past-The-Post Championships, North/South Conferencing and deciding drawn games with the dreaded Penalty Shootout.

We'll have to wait and see how excited fans get about watching this new finals format. Come the tenth and final game some players and supporters might be left wishing their side were one of the seven who missed out. The clubs however will relish the added revenue from five home finals matches.

My tip? We're a long way from home, but for South Melbourne, the season is going the full 36 rounds. And hopefully we'll find a Grand Final at the end of the road!
